Career Expo slated for Sept. 17

More than 60 exhibitors will be on hand for a Career and Education Expo slated to be held Friday, Sept. 17, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the Portland Community Center, 2000 Billy G. Webb Drive.

The Expo is free and open to the public. Several staffing/recruiting agencies will be accepting resumes, as well as a variety of employers representing such career fields as security, manufacturing, offshore drilling, retail, health care, trucking, ship repair, federal government, and defense contractors. Non-profit agencies, such as Dress for Success and Texas Veterans Commission, will also be on hand to help job seekers. Various local and online colleges and universities will be represented, if patrons are interested in pursuing continuing education.

The free event is sponsored by Navy Region South's Fleet and Family Support Centers. For more information, call (361) 776-4551.
